The Bass Chimes are an engaging outdoor musical play feature that encourages creativity, sensory exploration, and collaborative play. Designed to produce deep, resonant tones, they invite children to experiment with rhythm, sound, and music while developing listening and communication skills.

Framed with durable oak timber, the Bass Chimes combine natural aesthetics with long-lasting outdoor performance. In addition, the high-quality chime tubes produce rich bass notes that create an enjoyable musical experience for children of all ages and abilities.

The simple, accessible design encourages both individual and group play. As a result, children can explore cause and effect, express themselves creatively, and work together to create music. Meanwhile, the robust construction makes the Bass Chimes suitable for busy playgrounds, schools, parks, and sensory gardens.
