The Double Robinia Swing Set is a timeless playground favourite that encourages active play, balance, and coordination. Designed to accommodate two users at once, this swing set promotes shared play and social interaction while delivering a simple yet highly engaging experience.

Crafted from robust robinia timber, known for its exceptional strength, natural durability, and resistance to rot, the structure is ideally suited for long-term outdoor use. The natural form and character of the timber give each swing set a unique, organic appearance that blends seamlessly into natural and landscaped play environments.

Built for safety, stability, and longevity, the double robinia swing set is a reliable and visually striking addition to parks, schools, and public play spaces.
